6.2 Transfer - Relevant System

In the case of uncertificated Shares and other uncertificated Securities issued by the Company and held within a relevant system, subject to the Act, a Shareholder shall be entitled to transfer his Shares or other Securities by means of a relevant system and the operator of the relevant system shall act as agent of the Shareholders for the purposes of the transfer of Shares or other Securities. In addition to the foregoing, a transferor of uncertificated Shares is effective only if a record of the transfer evidencing the transferor's consent is available and the statutory particulars in respect of the transferee are entered in the Register of Members.

6.3 Date of Transfer

The transferor of any Shares shall remain the holder of those Shares until the name of the transferee is entered in the Register of Members as the holder of those Shares.

6.4 Suspension of Register

The Register of Members may be closed at such times and for such periods as the Board may from time to time determine, not exceeding in aggregate 30 days in each year, upon notice being given by advertisement in a leading daily English newspaper and in such other newspaper (if any) as may be required by the Act and the practice of the Stock Exchange.

6.5 Rights to Decline Transfer

The Board may decline to register a transfer of any Share to a person known to be a minor or bankrupt or person who is mentally disordered or a patient for the purpose of any British Virgin Islands or foreign statute relating to mental health.

6.6 Conditions to Transfer

The Board may also decline to register any transfer of Shares unless:

- 6.6.1 any written instrument of transfer, is lodged with the Company at the registered office or such other place as the Board may appoint accompanied in the case of certificated Shares by the certificate for the Shares to which it relates (if any) (except in the case of a transfer by a recognised person or a holder of such Shares in respect of whom the Company is not required by law to deliver a certificate and to whom a certificate has not been issued in respect of such Shares);

- 6.6.2 there is provided such evidence as the Board may reasonably require to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer and, if the instrument of transfer is executed by some other person on his behalf, the authority of that person to do so;
- 6.6.3 any instrument of transfer is in respect of only one class of Share; and
- 6.6.4 in the case of a transfer to joint holders, the number of joint holders to whom the Share is to be transferred does not exceed four.

The Company may retain an instrument of transfer which is registered but a transfer which the Directors refuse to register shall (except in the case of known or suspected fraud) be returned to the person lodging it when the notice of refusal is given.

6.7 Notice of Refusal

If the Board declines to register a transfer it shall, within two months or such other period (if any) as may be prescribed by the Act, send to the transferee notice of the refusal.

6.8 No Transfer Fee

No fee shall be charged by the Company for registering any transfer, probate, letters of administration, certificate of death or marriage, power of attorney, distringas or stop notice, order of court or other instrument relating to or affecting the title of any Share, or otherwise making any entry in the Register of Members relating to any Share.

6.9 Recognition of Transmission

The executor or administrator of a deceased Shareholder, the guardian of an incompetent Shareholder or the trustee of a bankrupt Shareholder shall be the only person recognised by the Company as having any title to his Share but they shall not be entitled to exercise any rights as a Shareholder of the Company until they have proceeded as set forth in the next following three Regulations.

6.10 Evidence of Transmission

The production to the Company of any document which is evidence of probate of the will, or letters of administration of the estate, or confirmation as executor, of a deceased Shareholder or of the appointment of a guardian of an incompetent Shareholder or the trustee of a bankrupt Shareholder shall be accepted by the Company even if the deceased, incompetent or bankrupt Shareholder is domiciled outside the British Virgin Islands if the document evidencing the grant of probate or letters of administration, confirmation as executor, appointment as guardian or trustee in bankruptcy is issued by a foreign court which had competent jurisdiction in the matter. For the purpose of establishing whether or not a foreign court had competent jurisdiction in such a matter the Directors may obtain appropriate legal advice. The Directors may also require an indemnity to be given by the executor, administrator, guardian or trustee in bankruptcy.

6.11 Registration Following Transmission

Any person becoming entitled by operation of law or otherwise to a Share or Shares in consequence of the death, incompetence or bankruptcy of any Shareholder may be registered as a Shareholder upon such evidence being produced as may reasonably be required by the Directors and in the case of uncertificated Shares subject also to the facilities and requirements of the relevant system concerned. An application by any such person to be registered as a Shareholder shall for all purposes be deemed to be a transfer of Shares of the deceased, incompetent or bankrupt Shareholder and the Directors shall treat it as such.

6.12 Transfer Following Transmission

Any person who has become entitled to a Share or Shares in consequence of the death, incompetence or bankruptcy of any Shareholder may, instead of being registered himself, request in writing that some person to be named by him be registered as the transferee of such Share or Shares and such request shall likewise be treated as if it were a transfer.

6.13 Determination of Incompetence

What amounts to incompetence on the part of a person is a matter to be determined by the court having regard to all the relevant evidence and the circumstances of the case, and the Directors may conclusively rely on the determination of any such court.

6.14 Legal Title on Transfer

The transfer of a Share is effective when the name of the transferee is entered on the Register of Members.

6.15 Lost Instrument of Transfer

If the Directors are satisfied that an instrument of transfer relating to Shares has been signed but that the instrument has been lost or destroyed, they may resolve by Resolution of Directors:

- 6.15.1 to accept such evidence of the transfer of Shares as they consider appropriate; and
- 6.15.2 that the transferee's name should be entered in the Register of Members notwithstanding the absence of the instrument of transfer.

6.16 Transfer by Personal Representative

Subject to the Memorandum, the personal representative of a deceased Shareholder may transfer a Share even though the personal representative is not a Shareholder at the time of the transfer.

7 MEETINGS AND CONSENTS OF SHAREHOLDERS

7.1 Annual General Meetings

The Board shall convene and the Company shall hold an annual general meeting at least once in each calendar year.

7.2 Extraordinary General Meetings

Subject to the requirements of the Act, and Regulation 7.1, any Director of the Company may convene meetings of the Shareholders at such times and in such manner and places within or outside the British Virgin Islands as the Director considers necessary or desirable.

7.3 Shareholders Convene

Upon the written request of Shareholders entitled to exercise 30 per cent (30%) or more of the voting rights in respect of the matter for which the meeting is requested the Directors shall convene a meeting of Shareholders.

7.4 Notice

At least 21 clear days' written notice shall be given for every Annual General Meeting and at least 14 clear days' written notice for Extraordinary General Meetings. Notices of Shareholder meetings shall be sent to:

7.4.1 those Shareholders whose names on the date the notice is given appear as Shareholders in the Register of Members and are entitled to vote at the meeting; and

7.4.2 the other Directors.

7.5 Record Date

The Director convening a meeting of Shareholders may fix as the record date for determining those Shareholders that are entitled to vote at the meeting the date notice is given of the meeting, or such other date as may be specified in the notice, being a date not earlier than the date of the notice.

7.6 Waiver of Notice

A meeting of Shareholders held in contravention of the requirement to give notice is valid if Shareholders holding at least 90 per cent (90%) of the total voting rights on all the matters to be considered at the meeting have waived notice of the meeting and, for this purpose, the presence of a Shareholder at the meeting shall constitute waiver in relation to all the Shares which that Shareholder holds.

7.7 Failure of Notice

The inadvertent failure of a Director who convenes a meeting to give notice of a meeting to a Shareholder or another Director, or the fact that a Shareholder or another Director has not received notice, does not invalidate the meeting.

7.8 Proxy

A Shareholder may be represented at a meeting of Shareholders by a proxy who may speak and vote on behalf of the Shareholder.

7.9 Presentation of Proxy

The instrument appointing a proxy shall be produced at the place designated for the meeting at least three Business Days before the time for holding the meeting at which the person named in such instrument proposes to vote. The notice of the meeting may specify an alternative or additional place or time at which the proxy shall be presented.

7.10 Form of Proxy

The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in substantially the following form or such other form as the chairman of the meeting shall accept as properly evidencing the wishes of the Shareholder appointing the proxy.

7.11 Joint Ownership

The following applies where Shares are jointly owned:

- 7.11.1 if two or more persons hold Shares jointly each of them may be present in person or by proxy at a meeting of Shareholders and may speak as a Shareholder;
- 7.11.2 if only one of the joint owners is present in person or by proxy he may vote on behalf of all joint owners; and
- 7.11.3 if two or more of the joint owners are present in person or by proxy they must vote as one.

7.12 Conference Facility

A Shareholder shall be deemed to be present at a meeting of Shareholders if he participates by telephone or other electronic means and all Shareholders participating in the meeting are able to hear each other. In the event that no Shareholders are physically present at the place chosen for any meeting such meeting will be deemed to be held at the location where the chairman of the meeting is physically present.

7.13 Quorum

No business shall be transacted at any meeting of Shareholders unless a quorum is present when the meeting proceeds to business. A meeting of Shareholders is duly constituted if, at the commencement of the meeting, there are present in person or by proxy two Shareholders entitled to vote on the resolutions of Shareholders to be considered at the meeting. The absence of a quorum shall not preclude the appointment of a chairman in accordance with the provisions of these Articles, which shall not be treated as part of the business of the meeting.

7.14 No Quorum

If within two hours from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened upon the requisition of Shareholders, shall be dissolved; in any other case it shall stand adjourned to the next Business Day in the jurisdiction in which the meeting was to have been held at the same time and place or to such other time and place as the Directors may determine, and if at the adjourned meeting there are present within one hour from the time appointed for the meeting in person or by proxy not less than one third of the votes of the Shares or each class of Shares entitled to vote on the matters to be considered by the meeting, those present shall constitute a quorum but otherwise the meeting shall be dissolved.

7.15 Chairman of Meeting

At every meeting of Shareholders, the Chairman of the Board shall preside as chairman of the meeting. If there is no Chairman of the Board or if the Chairman of the Board is not present at the meeting, the Shareholders present shall choose one of their number to be the chairman. If the Shareholders are unable to choose a chairman for any reason, then the person representing the greatest number of voting Shares present in person or by proxy at the meeting shall preside as chairman failing which the oldest individual Shareholder or representative of a Shareholder present shall take the chair.

7.16 Adjournment

The chairman may, with the consent of the meeting, adjourn any meeting from time to time, and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.

7.17 Polls

At any meeting of the Shareholders the chairman is responsible for deciding in such manner as he considers appropriate whether any resolution proposed has been carried or not and the result of his decision shall be announced to the meeting and recorded in the minutes of the meeting. If the chairman has any doubt as to the outcome of the vote on a proposed resolution, he shall cause a poll to be taken of all votes cast upon such resolution. If the chairman fails to take a poll then any Shareholder present in person or by proxy who disputes the announcement by the chairman of the result of any vote may immediately following such announcement demand that a poll be taken and the chairman shall cause a poll to be taken. Any Shareholder present in person or by proxy may demand a poll at any time. If a poll is taken at any meeting, the result shall be announced to the meeting and recorded in the minutes of the meeting.

7.18 Representation of Shareholders

Subject to the specific provisions contained in this Regulation for the appointment of representatives of Persons other than individuals the right of any individual to speak for or represent a Shareholder shall be determined by the law of the jurisdiction where, and by the documents by which, the Person is constituted or derives its existence. In case of doubt, the Directors may in good faith seek legal advice from any qualified person and unless and until a court of competent jurisdiction shall otherwise rule, the Directors may rely and act upon such advice without incurring any liability to any Shareholder or the Company.

7.19 Legal Persons

Any Person other than an individual which is a Shareholder may by resolution of its directors or other governing body authorise such individual as it thinks fit to act as its representative at any meeting of Shareholders or of any class of Shareholders, and the individual so authorised shall be entitled to exercise the same rights on behalf of the Shareholder which he represents as that Shareholder could exercise if it were an individual.

7.20 Proxy Evidence

The chairman of any meeting at which a vote is cast by proxy or on behalf of any Person other than an individual may call for a notarially certified copy of such proxy or authority which shall be produced within seven days of being so requested or the votes cast by such proxy or on behalf of such Person shall be disregarded.

7.21 Directors

Directors may attend and speak at any meeting of Shareholders and at any separate meeting of the holders of any class of Shares.

7.22 Written Resolutions

An action that may be taken by the Shareholders at a meeting may also be taken by a resolution consented to in writing, without the need for any notice, but if any resolution of the Shareholders is adopted otherwise than by the unanimous written consent of all Shareholders, a copy of such resolution shall forthwith be sent to all Shareholders not consenting to such resolution. The consent may be in the form of counterparts, each counterpart being signed by one or more Shareholders. If the consent is in one or more counterparts, and the counterparts bear different dates, then the resolution shall take effect on the earliest date upon which Shareholders holding a sufficient number of votes of Shares to constitute a resolution of the Shareholders have consented to the resolution by signed counterparts.

8 DIRECTORS

8.1 Appointment

The first Directors shall be appointed by the first registered agent within six months of the date of incorporation of the Company; and thereafter, the Directors shall be elected by Ordinary Resolution or by Resolution of Directors.

8.2 Consent to Act

No person shall be appointed as a Director, alternate director, or nominated as a reserve director, of the Company unless he has consented in writing to be a Director, alternate director or to be nominated as a reserve director respectively.

Subject to Sub-Regulation 8.1, the minimum number of Directors shall be one and there shall be no maximum number.

8.4 Term of Office

8.5 Retirement by Rotation

The following provisions in relation to the retirement of Directors by rotation shall apply:

- 8.5.1 at each Annual General Meeting one-third of the Directors for the time being (or, if their number is not a multiple of three, the number nearest to but not more than one-third) shall retire from office by rotation;
- 8.5.2 the Directors to retire in every year shall be those subject to retirement by rotation who have been longest in office since their last re-election or appointment. As between persons who become or were last re-elected Directors on the same day, those to retire shall (unless they otherwise agree among themselves) be determined by lot. A retiring Director shall be eligible for re-election. The Directors to retire on each occasion both as to number and identity shall be determined by the composition of the Board at the date of the notice convening the Annual General Meeting, and no Director shall be required to retire or be relieved from retiring by reason of any change in the number or identity of the Directors after the date of such notice but before the close of the meeting;
- 8.5.3 the Company at the Annual General Meeting at which a Director retires under any provision of these Articles may by Ordinary Resolution fill the office being vacated by electing thereto the retiring Director or some other person eligible for appointment. In default, the retiring Director shall be deemed to have been re-elected except in any of the following cases: (i) where at such Annual General Meeting it is expressly resolved not to fill such office or a resolution for the re-election of such Director is put to the meeting and lost; (ii) where such Director is disqualified under the Act from holding office as a Director or has given notice in writing to the Company that he is unwilling to be re-elected; or (iii) where such Director has attained any retiring age applicable to him as a director; and
- 8.5.4 the retirement shall not have effect until the conclusion of the Annual General Meeting except where a resolution is passed to elect some other person in the place of the retiring Director or a resolution for his re-election is put to the Annual General Meeting and lost and, accordingly, a retiring Director who is re-elected or deemed to have been re-elected shall remain in office without a break.

8.6 Removal from Office

A Director may be removed from office:

- 8.6.1 with or without cause, by 75% Resolution of Shareholders passed at a meeting of Shareholders called for the purposes of removing the Director or for purposes including the removal of the Director or by 75% Resolution of Shareholders consented to in writing;
- 8.6.2 a registered medical practitioner who is treating the Director gives a written opinion to the Company stating that the person has become physically or mentally incapable of acting as a Director and may remain so for more than three months;

- 8.6.3 by reasons of that Director's mental health, a court make an order which wholly or partly prevents that person from personally exercising any powers or rights which that person would otherwise have; or
- 8.6.4 with cause, by Resolution of Directors passed at a meeting of Directors called for the purpose of removing the Director or for purposes including the removal of the Director.

8.7 Resignation

A Director may resign his office by giving written notice of his resignation to the Company and the resignation has effect from the date the notice is received by the Company or from such later date as may be specified in the notice. A Director shall resign forthwith as a Director if he is, or becomes, disqualified from acting as a director under the Act.

8.8 Interim Appointment

The Directors may at any time appoint any person to be a Director either to fill a vacancy or as an addition to the existing Directors. Where the Directors appoint a person as Director to fill a vacancy, the term shall not exceed the term that remained when the person who has ceased to be a Director ceased to hold office.

8.9 Vacancy

A vacancy in relation to Directors occurs if a Director dies or otherwise ceases to hold office prior to the expiration of his term of office.

8.10 Reserve Director

Where the Company only has one Shareholder who is an individual and that Shareholder is also the sole Director of the Company, the sole Shareholder/Director may, by instrument in writing, nominate a person who is not disqualified from being a Director of the Company as a reserve Director of the Company to act in the place of the sole Director in the event of his death.

8.11 Term of Reserve Director

The nomination of a person as a reserve Director of the Company ceases to have effect if:

- 8.11.1 before the death of the sole Shareholder/Director who nominated him:
- (a) he resigns as reserve director; or
 - (b) the sole Shareholder/Director revokes the nomination in writing; or
- 8.11.2 the sole Shareholder/Director who nominated him ceases to be able to be the sole Shareholder/Director of the Company for any reason other than his death.

8.12 Register of Directors

The Company shall keep a register of Directors (the Register of Directors) containing:

- 8.12.1 in the case of an individual director, the particulars stated in section 118A(1)(a) of the Act;
- 8.12.2 in the case of a corporate director, the particulars stated in section 118A(1)(b) of the Act; and
- 8.12.3 such other information as may be prescribed by the Act.

8.13 Form of Register of Directors

The Register of Directors may be kept in any such form as the Directors may approve, but if it is in magnetic, electronic or other data storage form, the Company must be able to produce legible evidence of its contents. Until a Resolution of Directors determining otherwise is passed, the magnetic, electronic or other data storage shall be the original Register of Directors.

8.14 Registrar Filing

The Company shall file for registration with the Registrar a copy of its register of directors (and any changes to the register of directors) in accordance with the provisions of the Act.

8.15 Emoluments

The Directors may, by Resolution of Directors, fix the emoluments of Directors with respect to services to be rendered in any capacity to the Company.

8.16 No shareholding

A Director is not required to hold a Share as a qualification to office.

8.17 Appointment of Alternates

A Director, by written instrument deposited at the registered office of the Company, may from time to time appoint another Director or another person who is not disqualified for appointment as a director under section 111 of the Act to be his alternate to:

8.17.1 exercise the appointing Director's powers; and

8.17.2 carry out the appointing Director's responsibilities, in relation to the taking of decisions by the Directors in the absence of the appointing Director.

8.18 Consent of Alternate

No person shall be appointed as an alternate director unless he has consented in writing to be an alternate director. The appointment of an alternate director does not take effect until written notice of the appointment has been deposited at the registered office of the Company.

8.19 Removal of Alternate

The appointing Director may, at any time, terminate or vary the alternate's appointment. The termination or variation of the appointment of an alternate director does not take effect until written notice of the termination or variation has been deposited at the registered office of the Company, save that if a Director shall die or cease to hold the office of Director for any reason whatsoever, the appointment of his alternate shall thereupon cease and terminate immediately without the need of notice.

8.20 Limit on Power

An alternate director has no power to appoint an alternate, whether of the appointing Director or of the alternate director.

8.21 Powers of Alternate

An alternate director has the same rights as the appointing Director in relation to any Directors' meeting and any written resolution of Directors circulated for written consent. Unless stated otherwise in the notice of the appointment of the alternate, or a notice of variation of the appointment, if undue delay or difficulty would be occasioned by giving notice to a Director of a resolution of which his approval is sought in accordance with these Articles his alternate (if any) shall be entitled to signify approval of the same on behalf of that Director. Any exercise by the alternate director of the appointing Director's powers in relation to the taking of decisions by the Directors is as effective as if the powers were exercised by the appointing Director. An alternate director does not act as an agent of or for the appointing Director and is liable for his own acts and omissions as an alternate director.

8.22 Fees

The remuneration of an alternate director (if any) shall be payable out of the remuneration payable to the Director appointing him (if any), as agreed between such alternate director and the Director appointing him.

9 POWERS OF DIRECTORS

9.1 Management by Directors

The business and affairs of the Company shall be managed by, or under the direction or supervision of, the Directors. The Directors have all the powers necessary for managing, and for directing and supervising, the business and affairs of the Company. The Directors may pay all expenses incurred preliminary to and in connection with the incorporation of the Company and may exercise all such powers of the Company as are not by the Act or by the Memorandum or the Articles required to be exercised by the Shareholders.

9.2 Fiduciary Duties

Each Director shall exercise his powers for a proper purpose and shall not act or agree to the Company acting in a manner that contravenes the Memorandum, the Articles or the Act. Each Director, in exercising his powers or performing his duties, shall act honestly and in good faith in what the Director believes to be the best interests of the Company.

9.3 Best Interests of Holding Company

If the Company is the wholly owned subsidiary of a holding company, a Director of the Company may, when exercising powers or performing duties as a Director, act in a manner which he believes is in the best interests of the holding company even though it may not be in the best interests of the Company.

9.4 Corporate Directors

Any Director which is a body corporate may appoint any individual as its duly authorised representative for the purpose of representing it at meetings of the Directors, with respect to the signing of consents or otherwise.

9.5 Acting in Vacancy

9.8 No Loans to Directors

The Company has no power to grant loans to the Directors.

10 PROCEEDINGS OF DIRECTORS

Any one Director may call a meeting of the Directors by sending a written notice to each other Director.

10.2 Place

The Directors or any committee thereof may meet at such times and in such manner and places within or outside the British Virgin Islands as the Directors may determine to be necessary or desirable.

10.4 Notice of Meetings

A Director shall be given not less than three days' notice of meetings of Directors, but a meeting of Directors held without three days' notice having been given to all Directors shall be valid if all the Directors entitled to vote at the meeting who do not attend waive notice of the meeting, and for this purpose the presence of a Director at a meeting shall constitute waiver by that Director. The inadvertent failure to give notice of a meeting to a Director, or the fact that a Director has not received the notice, does not invalidate the meeting.

10.5 Quorum

A meeting of Directors is duly constituted for all purposes if at the commencement of the meeting there are present in person or by alternate not less than one-half of the total number of Directors, unless there are only two Directors in which case the quorum is two.

10.6 Sole Director

If the Company has only one Director the provisions herein contained for meetings of Directors do not apply and such sole Director has full power to represent and act for the Company in all matters as are not by the Act, the Memorandum or these Articles required to be exercised by the Shareholders. In lieu of minutes of a meeting the sole Director shall record in writing and sign a note or memorandum of all matters requiring a Resolution of Directors. Such a note or memorandum constitutes sufficient evidence of such resolution for all purposes.

10.7 Chairman

At meetings of Directors at which the Chairman of the Board is present, he shall preside as chairman of the meeting. If there is no Chairman of the Board or if the Chairman of the Board is not present, the Directors present shall choose one of their number to be chairman of the meeting.

10.8 Written Resolution

An action that may be taken by the Directors or a committee of Directors at a meeting may also be taken by a Resolution of Directors or a resolution of a committee of Directors consented to in writing or by telex, telegram, cable or other written electronic communication by a majority of the Directors or by a majority of the members of the committee, as the case may be, without the need for any notice. A written resolution consented to in such manner may consist of several documents, including written electronic communication, in like form each signed or assented to by one or more Directors. If the consent is in one or more counterparts, and the counterparts bear different dates, then the resolution shall take effect on the date upon which the last Director has consented to the resolution by signed counterparts.

10.9 Conference Call

A person may participate and vote in a meeting of the Directors or committee of Directors by telephone or other electronic means by means of which all the persons participating in the meeting are able to hear each other. Unless otherwise determined by the Directors the meeting shall be deemed to be held at the place where the chairman is at the start of the meeting.

10.10 Minutes

The Directors shall cause minutes to be made in books kept for the purpose of all appointments of officers made by the Directors, all proceedings at meetings of the Company or the holders of any class of Shares and of the Directors, and of committees of Directors including the names of the Directors or alternate Directors present at each meeting.

11.3 Sub-Delegation

Sub-Regulation 11.2.2 and 11.2.3 do not prevent a committee of Directors, where authorised by the Resolution of Directors appointing such committee or by a subsequent Resolution of Directors, from appointing a sub-committee and delegating powers exercisable by the committee to the sub-committee.

11.4 Committee Proceedings

The meetings and proceedings of each committee of Directors consisting of two or more Directors shall be governed mutatis mutandis by the provisions of the Articles regulating the proceedings of Directors so far as the same are not superseded by any provisions in the Resolution of Directors establishing the committee.

11.5 Exercise of Powers

Where the Directors delegate their powers to a committee of Directors they remain responsible for the exercise of that power by the committee, unless they believed on reasonable grounds at all times before the exercise of the power that the committee would exercise the power in conformity with the duties imposed on Directors under the Act.

12 OFFICERS AND AGENTS

12.1 Officers

The Company may by Resolution of Directors appoint officers of the Company at such times as may be considered necessary or expedient. Such officers may consist of a Chairman of the Board of Directors, a president and one or more vice-presidents, secretaries and treasurers and such other officers as may from time to time be considered necessary or expedient. Any number of offices may be held by the same person.

12.2 Duties of Officers

The officers shall perform such duties as are prescribed at the time of their appointment subject to any modification in such duties as may be prescribed thereafter by Resolution of Directors. In the absence of any specific prescription of duties it shall be the responsibility of the Chairman of the Board to preside at meetings of Directors and Shareholders, the president to manage the day to day affairs of the Company, the vice-presidents to act in order of seniority in the absence of the president but otherwise to perform such duties as may be delegated to them by the president, the secretaries to maintain the Register of Members, minute books and records (other than financial records) of the Company and to ensure compliance with all procedural requirements imposed on the Company by applicable law, and the treasurer to be responsible for the financial affairs of the Company.

12.3 Emoluments

The emoluments of all officers shall be fixed by Resolution of Directors.

12.4 Term

The officers of the Company shall hold office until their successors are duly appointed, but any officer elected or appointed by the Directors may be removed at any time, with or without cause, by Resolution of Directors. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the Company may be filled by Resolution of Directors.

12.5 Agent

The Directors may, by Resolution of Directors, appoint any person, including a person who is a Director, to be an agent of the Company.

12.6 Powers of Agent

An agent of the Company shall have such powers and authority of the Directors, including the power and authority to affix the Seal, as are set forth in the Articles or in the Resolution of Directors appointing the agent, except that no agent has any power or authority with respect to the following:

- 12.6.11 to authorise the Company to continue as a company incorporated under the laws of a jurisdiction outside the British Virgin Islands.

12.7 Delegation of Agency

The Resolution of Directors appointing an agent may authorise the agent to appoint one or more substitutes or delegates to exercise some or all of the powers conferred on the agent by the Company.

12.8 Removal of Agent

The Directors may remove an agent appointed by the Company and may revoke or vary a power conferred on him.

13 CONFLICT OF INTERESTS

13.1 Disclosure of Interests

A Director shall, forthwith after becoming aware of the fact that they are interested in a transaction entered into or to be entered into by the Company, disclose the interest to all other Directors.

For the purposes of Sub-Regulation 13.1, a disclosure to all other Directors to the effect that a Director is a member, director or officer of another named entity or has a fiduciary relationship with respect to the entity or a named individual and is to be regarded as interested in any transaction which may, after the date of the entry into the transaction or disclosure of the interest, be entered into with that entity or individual, is a sufficient disclosure of interest in relation to that transaction.

13.2 Interested Director may vote

A Director who is interested in a transaction entered into or to be entered into by the Company may:

- (a) vote on a matter relating to the transaction;
- (b) attend a meeting of Directors at which a matter relating to the transaction arises and be included among the Directors present at the meeting for the purposes of a quorum; and
- (c) sign a document on behalf of the Company, or do any other thing in his capacity as a Director, that relates to the transaction, and, subject to compliance with the Act shall not, by reason of his office be accountable to the Company for any benefit which he derives from such transaction and no such transaction shall be liable to be avoided on the grounds of any such interest or benefit.

14 INDEMNIFICATION

14.1 Indemnity

Subject to the limitations hereinafter provided the Company shall indemnify against all expenses, including legal fees, and against all judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement and reasonably incurred in connection with legal, administrative or investigative proceedings any person who:

- 14.1.1 is or was a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed proceedings, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, by reason of the fact that the person is or was a Director of the Company; or
- 14.1.2 is or was, at the request of the Company, serving as a director of, or in any other capacity, is or was acting for, another body corporate or a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise.

14.2 Good Faith

The indemnity in Sub-Regulation 14.1 only applies if the person acted honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the Company and, in the case of criminal proceedings, the person had no reasonable cause to believe that their conduct was unlawful.

14.3 Determination of Best Interests

For the purposes of Sub-Regulation 14.2, a Director acts in the best interests of the Company if he acts in the best interests of:

- 14.3.1 the Company's holding company; or
- 14.3.2 a Shareholder or Shareholders;

in either case, in the circumstances specified in Sub-Regulation 9.3 or the Act, as the case may be.

14.4 Determination of Good Faith

The decision of the Directors as to whether the person acted honestly and in good faith and with a view to the best interests of the Company and as to whether the person had no reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful is, in the absence of fraud, sufficient for the purposes of the Articles, unless a question of law is involved.

14.5 Termination of Proceedings

The termination of any proceedings by any judgment, order, settlement, conviction or the entering of a nolle prosequi does not, by itself, create a presumption that the person did not act honestly and in good faith and with a view to the best interests of the Company or that the person had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

14.6 Expenses Paid in Advance — Director

Expenses, including legal fees, incurred by a Director in defending any legal, administrative or investigative proceedings may be paid by the Company in advance of the final disposition of such proceedings upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the Director to repay the amount if it shall ultimately be determined that the Director is not entitled to be indemnified by the Company in accordance with Sub-Regulation 14.1.

14.7 Expenses Paid in Advance - Former Director

Expenses, including legal fees, incurred by a former director in defending any legal, administrative or investigative proceedings may be paid by the Company in advance of the final disposition of such proceedings upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the former director to repay the amount if it shall ultimately be determined that the former director is not entitled to be indemnified by the Company in accordance with Sub-Regulation 14.1 and upon such terms and conditions, if any, as the Company deems appropriate.

14.8 Non-Exclusivity

23.3 No Other Conditions

The Company shall, on receipt of a notice pursuant to Regulation 24.1, notify a Regulatory Information Service.

24.3.2 the total number of voting rights attaching to Shares of the Company which are held by it in treasury.

In the event that the total number of voting rights in respect of any class of Shares issued by the Company increases or decreases by 1 per cent (1%) or more following completion of a transaction by the Company, then, notwithstanding Regulation 24.3, the Company must notify a Regulatory Information Service without delay.

24.9 Interpretation

For the purposes of interpreting Regulations 24.1 to 24.8 (inclusive):

- 24.9.1 a person's percentage interest in voting rights is to be calculated on the basis of all the Shares to which voting rights are attached even if the exercise of such rights is suspended. The number of voting rights to be considered when calculating whether a threshold has been reached, exceeded or fallen below is the number of voting rights in existence according to the Company's most recent disclosure made in accordance with Regulations 24.3 or 24.4;
- 24.9.2 Qualifying Financial Instruments means transferable securities and options, futures, swaps, forward rate agreements and any other derivative contracts provided that they result in an entitlement to acquire, on the holder's own initiative alone, under a formal agreement, Shares to which voting rights are attached, already issued by the Company, or other financial instruments giving the holder a long position on the economic performance of Shares or otherwise having a "similar economic effect" to a Qualifying Financial Instrument within the meaning of Rule 5 of the UK Financial Conduct Authority's Disclosure and Transparency Rules (DTR 5);
- 24.9.3 Regulatory Information Service means a service approved by the Stock Exchange for the distribution to the public of announcements; and
- 24.9.4 A person will be treated as being "indirectly" interested in Shares if he would be deemed so interested under DTR 5.

24.10 Voting Rights Disregarded

For the purposes of Regulations 24.1 to 24.8 (inclusive), voting rights attaching to the following Shares are to be disregarded for the purposes of determining whether a person has a notification obligation:

- 24.10.1 Shares acquired for the sole purpose of clearing and settlement within a settlement cycle not exceeding the period beginning with the transaction and ending at the close of the third trading day following the day of the execution of the transaction (irrespective of whether the transaction is conducted on-exchange);
- 24.10.2 Shares held by a custodian (or nominee) in its custodian (or nominee) capacity (whether operating from an establishment in the UK or elsewhere) provided such a person can only exercise the voting rights attached to such Shares under instructions given in writing or by electronic means;

- 24.10.3 Shares held by a market maker acting in that capacity subject to the percentage of such Shares not being equal to or in excess of 10 per cent (10%);
- 24.10.4 Shares held or Shares underlying financial instruments to the extent that such financial instruments are held by a credit institution or investment firm provided that:
- (a) the Shares, or financial instruments, are held within the trading book of the credit institution or investment firm;
 - (b) the voting rights attached to such Shares do not exceed 5 per cent (5%); and
 - (c) the credit institution, or investment firm, ensures that the voting rights attached to Shares in, or related to financial instruments in, the trading book are not exercised or otherwise used to intervene in the management of the Company;
- 24.10.5 Shares held by a collateral taker under a collateral transaction which involves the outright transfer of securities provided the collateral taker does not declare any intention of exercising (and does not exercise) the voting rights attaching to such Shares; and
- 24.10.6 Shares acquired by a borrower under a stock lending agreement provided that:
- (a) such Shares (or equivalent stock) are on-lent or otherwise disposed of by the borrower by not later than close of business on the next trading day; and
 - (b) the borrower does not declare any intention of exercising (and does not exercise) the voting rights attaching to the Shares.

24.11 Disclosure Notice

Regulations 24.11 to 24.17 apply where the Company gives to a Shareholder or to any person appearing to be interested in a Share a notice requiring any of the following information (a Disclosure Notice):

- 24.11.1 confirmation as to whether such person is or was, at any time during the three years immediately preceding the date on which the notice is issued (the Three Year Period), interested in Shares comprised in the Company's share capital;
- 24.11.2 if he is or was so interested, particulars of his own past or present interest in Shares comprised in the share capital of the Company held by him at any time during the Three Year Period;
- 24.11.3 if he is presently interested in Shares comprised in the Company's share capital and any other interest in the Shares persists (or in any case where another interest in the Shares subsisted during the Three Year Period at any time when his own interest subsisted), such particulars (so far as lies within his knowledge) with respect to that other interest as may be required by the Disclosure Notice;

24.11.4 if he was interested in Shares comprised in the Company's share capital during the Three Year Period but is no longer interested, particulars (so far as lies within his knowledge) of the identity of the person who had that interest immediately upon him ceasing to hold it.

If a Disclosure Notice is given by the Company to a person appearing to be interested in any Share, a copy shall at the same time be given to the holding Shareholder, but the accidental omission to do so or the non-receipt of the copy by the Shareholder shall not prejudice the operation of the provisions of Regulations 24.1 to 24.17.

24.12 Default

If at any time the Board is satisfied that any Shareholder, or any other person appearing to be interested in Shares held by such Shareholder, has been duly served with a Disclosure Notice and is in default for the prescribed period in supplying to the Company the information thereby required, or, in purported compliance with such a notice, has made a statement which is false or inadequate in a material particular, then the Board may, in its absolute discretion at any time thereafter by notice (a Default Direction Notice) to such Shareholder direct that:

24.12.1 in respect of the Shares in relation to which the default occurred (the Default Shares) the Shareholder shall not be entitled to vote at an annual general meeting either personally or by proxy or to exercise any other right conferred by membership in relation to meetings of the Company;

24.12.2 where the Default Shares represent at least 1/4 per cent (0.25%) of the total number of Shares of the class concerned less any Shares of that class held in treasury by the Company, then the Default Direction Notice may additionally direct that:

- (a) except in a liquidation of the Company, no payment shall be made of any sums due from the Company on the Default Shares, whether in respect of dividend or otherwise;
- (b) no other distribution shall be made on the Default Shares;
- (c) no transfer of any of the Shares held by such Shareholder shall be registered unless:
 - (i) the Shareholder is not himself in default as regards supplying the information requested and the transfer when presented for registration is accompanied by a certificate by the Shareholder in such form as the Board may in its absolute discretion require to the effect that after due and careful enquiry the Shareholder is satisfied that no person in default as regards supplying such information is interested in any of the Shares the subject of the transfer; or
 - (ii) the transfer is an approved transfer.

The Company shall send to each other person appearing to be interested in the Shares the subject of any Default Direction Notice a copy of the notice, but the failure or omission by the Company to do so shall not invalidate such notice.

24.13 Cessation of Notice

Default Direction Notice shall cease to have effect:

- 24.13.1 in relation to any Shares which are transferred by such Shareholder by means of an approved transfer; or
- 24.13.2 when the Board is satisfied that such Shareholder and any other person appearing to be interested in Shares held by such Shareholder, has given to the Company the information required by the relevant notice.

24.14 Cancellation of Notice

The Board may at any time give notice cancelling a Default Direction Notice.

24.15 For the purposes of Regulations 24.11 to 24.14:

- 24.15.1 a person shall be treated as appearing to be interested in any Shares if the Shareholder holding such Shares has given to the Company a notification which either (i) names such person as being so interested or (ii) fails to establish the identities of all those interested in the Shares and (after taking into account any such notification and any other relevant information) the Company knows or has reasonable cause to believe that the person in question is or may be interested in the Shares;
- 24.15.2 the prescribed period is 14 days from the date of service of the said notice unless the Default Shares represent at least 1/4 per cent (0.25%) of the total number of Shares of the class concerned less any Shares of that class held in treasury by the Company, when the prescribed period is 14 days from that date;
- 24.15.3 a transfer of Shares is an approved transfer if but only if:
 - (a) it is a transfer of Shares to an offer or by way or in pursuance of acceptance of a takeover offer, meaning an offer to acquire all the Shares, or all the Shares of any class or classes in the Company (other than Shares which at the date of the offer are already held by the Offeror), being an offer on terms which are the same in relation to all the Shares to which the offer relates or, where those Shares include Shares of different classes, in relation to all the Shares of each class; or
 - (b) the Board is satisfied that the transfer is made pursuant to a sale of the whole of the beneficial ownership of the Shares the subject of the transfer to a party unconnected with the Shareholder and with other persons appearing to be interested in such Shares;
 - (c) the transfer results from a sale made through a recognised investment exchange as defined in the Act or the Securities Regulations or any other investment exchange on which the Company's Shares are normally traded including the Stock Exchange; or
 - (d) the transfer is made by way of a relevant system; and
- 24.15.4 for the purposes of Regulation 24.11 to 24.14 a person will be treated as having an "interest" in Shares if:

- (a) he owns them;
- (b) he has the right (whether conditional or absolute) to exercise or direct the exercise of the voting rights attaching to them or has general control of them;
- (c) by virtue of any agreement to purchase, option or derivative he has the right or option to acquire them or call for their delivery; or he is under an obligation to take delivery of them, whether the right, option or obligation is conditional or absolute;
